

Statement on Personal Data Protection

The company Allodium s.r.o., ID No. 279 38 697, with its registered office at Puškinovo nám. 584/11, Praha 6, 160 00, registered in the Commercial Register maintained by the Municipal Court in Prague, Section C, Insert 127911 (hereinafter “Allodium”), hereby declares that in connection with the provision of its services, i.e. the operation of online gaming, it collects data about game participants which they provide to Allodium when registering via its website or within other communications between themselves and Allodium, especially:

nickname
email address
IP address
cookies, local Flash data
game processes and states and information about service use and billing

Allodium also collects statistical data such as the participant’s browser type and operating system and the URL from which they were redirected to Allodium’s website, as well as the date, time, pages visited, time period and frequency of use. These data are used for anonymous statistical analysis and are not related to any particular person.

The above-mentioned information may constitute personal data under the Act on Personal Data Protection no. 101/2000 Coll., as amended. Allodium processes such data for the purposes of duly performing contracts with participants, protecting against their violations of game rules (e.g. through multiple uses of accounts), ensuring game system security and stability and improving Allodium’s service offer to participants, fulfilling Allodium’s legal obligations and sending participants its service offers.

The above-mentioned data are processed by Allodium, but the information may also be provided by certain related entities under s 82 of Act No. 90/2012 Coll. on companies and cooperatives, as amended, if so required to duly fulfil the contract with the participant.

Allodium will retain the above-mentioned data about participants for the duration of their use of Allodium’s services and an additional three years after the termination of that service use, all to ensure the safety and stability of Allodium’s system and enforce the fulfilment of contracts with participants. On the expiry of that period, the data will be destroyed.

Allodium ensures that sufficient technical and organisational security measures are in place to prevent unauthorised or accidental access to participants’ data, the alteration, destruction or loss thereof, unauthorised transmission or unauthorised processing and other misuse.

Payment Information

Allodium uses external payment services providers (Paypal, Global Collect, etc.) to handle payments for its services. Participants provide their data directly to these companies and not via Allodium, and these external payment service providers directly protect these data.

Consent to Personal Data Processing

By agreeing to this statement, you consent to the processing of your above-mentioned data by Allodium. The provision of such data is voluntary, and your consent to processing can be withdrawn at any time by sending written notice to Allodium. Nevertheless, Allodium is entitled to process your above-mentioned data in order to comply with its legal obligations as a data administrator, ensure the fulfilment of the contract with you and protect its rights and legally protected interests and for other purposes stated by law.

Should you have any questions regarding this statement or your consent, please do not hesitate to contact us at any time at infinitem@allodium.eu. If possible, please provide your player ID, email address and, where applicable, the game.
